

Chief Health Officer Seminar Series Proposed Program – May to October 2007

The Seminar Series is open to health professionals, researchers, academics, ACT Health staff, students and interested members of the public

Venue: Griffin Centre, Cnr Bunda and Genge Sts, Canberra City

Time: 12.30-1.45 pm

For further information contact: Meagan Morrison, Office of the Chief Health Officer, ACT Health (6205 2253)

Date	Topic	Presenters	Venue
Wednesday 2 May (1)	Future Directions for health in the ACT	Mr Mark Cormack Chief Executive, ACT Health Dr Paul Dugdale Chief Health Officer	2 nd Floor Conference Room (room 10) Griffin Centre
Wednesday 13 June (2)	Public Health: what do we want and how do we get it	Prof George Rubin President, Australasian Faculty of Public Health Medicine Dr David Brand Director, Brand Consulting	Ground Floor Public Hall (room 1) Griffin Centre
Wednesday 4 July (3)	Evidence Practise and Institutions	Dr Brian Richards Visiting Fellow, Centre for Health Stewardship at the Australian National University Dr Bruce Barraclough President Elect, The International Society for Quality in Health Care	2 nd Floor Conference Room (room 10) Griffin Centre
Wednesday 1 August (4)	Urbanisation and Planning	Ms Jacqui Lavis Deputy Chief Planning Executive and Director Planning Services Branch ACT Planning and Land Authority Mr Allen Kearn Deputy Chief, Business Integration CSIRO Sustainable Ecosystems	2 nd Floor Conference Room (room 10) Griffin Centre
Wednesday 5 September (5)	Research & Training for Public Health	Ms Angela Magarry Director Policy and Analysis, Australian Vice-Chancellors' Committee Prof Warwick Anderson Chief Executive Officer, National Health and Medical Research Council	2 nd Floor Conference Room (room 10) Griffin Centre
Wednesday 3 October (6)	A Population Perspective on Chronic Disease	Prof Ann-Louise Ponsonby Department of Paediatrics, ACT Health Ross O'Donoughue Director, Health Improvement Branch	2 nd Floor Conference Room (room 10) Griffin Centre